They should have gone to Specsavers!'- and - Jesus eats the leftovers!

‘In a state of alarm and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost. but he said: why are you so agitated, and why are these doubts rising in your hearts? And then he showed them his hands and his side.’ ‘Look at my hands and my feet...touch me and see for yourselves.’ ‘Have you anything to eat?’, he asked. They gave him a piece of grilled fish (the left-overs!), which he took and ate before their eyes. . We in our generation look at his hands and feet and his side, and see for ourselves. The Risen Lord is not a ghost! ‘May your people exult for ever, O God, in renewed youthfulness of Spirit’

Pope Francis: ‘In Jesus, love has triumphed over hatred, mercy over sinfulness, goodness over evil, truth over falsehood, life over death...In every human situation, marked by frailty, sin and death, "the Good News is no mere matter of words, but a testimony to unconditional, faithful love: it is about leaving ourselves behind, encountering others, being close to those crushed by life's troubles, sharing with the needy, standing at the side of the sick, elderly and the outcast,"

Quote "If Jesus rose from the dead, then you have to accept all that he said; if he didn't rise from the dead, then why worry about any of what he said? The issue on which everything hangs is not whether or not you like his teaching but whether or not he rose from the dead."— Timothy Keller, The Reason for God: Belief in an Age of Skepticism
