OUR PREACHERS ARE:

Fr. Tony Rice, C.Ss.R hails from Belfast city where most of his family still live. He joined the Redemptorists in 2001 and was ordained in 2009. Tony currently is our Vocations Director, has responsibility for Redemptorist students and also works as a psychotherapist. To relax, Tony enjoys watching the latest movies, having meals with friends and catching up on sleep.

Fr. Denis Luddy C.Ss.R. joined the Redemptorists in 1982 and was ordained in 1991. Apart from two years in the Philippine Islands Denis has spent his life giving parish missions, novenas and school retreats. A native of Co. Cork, he has had assignments in our Redemptorist Communities in Limerick, Dundalk and Esker . Denis is a highly regarded preacher!

Gerry O'Connor, C.Ss.R a native of Limerick City, a member of the Irish Redemptorist Leadership Team, a popular preacher, and Redemptorist Procurator for Africa and Madagascar. Gerry is an ardent rugby fan, and has even more passion for the kingdom of God!

Neil Foley lives near Wexford Town in the Diocese of Ferns where he is involved in several prayer and music ministries. His latest collaborations are on the Hook of Faith digital evangelisation project and with The Mustard Seeds contemporary worship group, both of which can be followed on Facebook. He is married to Helen, has a Certificate in Pastoral Theology and works as an environmental scientist.

CAR PARKING: AN APPEAL TO PARK RESPONSIBLY

We appeal to all parties for patience and courtesy.

We ask you not to block gateways of area residents.

Additional car-parks are available again this year.

Please follow the directions of our stewards. Thank you!
